Pastoral Implications. There must be proper reverence for God, obedience to His will, and an ongoing communion with Christ. Here is valuable guidance for those who are passionate to follow God.

If you need a role model or inspiration for thinking big, this is it. Sproul writes, "Our joy is to come from the assurance that we have redemption in Christ. Another concept he looks at is that of the carnal Christian. This will happen by necessity in the course of proclaiming the Good News with renewed apostolic and pastoral zeal to those near and far and breathing life into every aspect of human life, thereby contributing to the construction of a more just and peaceful world.

It's very possible that I'll be re-reading it and taking notes. So, the way to joy in those circumstances is not optional. However in the New Testament, there seems to be a fuller awareness of the importance of the function of conscience in the Christian life.
