first affirmation in the second half of the Sixties - following the Fluxus Festspiele Neuester Musik, seen by many as the founding event of the movement in which artists like Dick Higgins, George Maciunas, Nam June Paik, Wolf Vostell took part - of the era in which the video like the other means of expression was welcomed for the first time and experienced in all its artistic potential, passing from decollage to pure installation, from more complex narrative structures organized on multiscreen plans, to more clearly documentary works sticking to reality?
