It was extremely well organised wonderful accommodation and the walks each day were great, beautiful scenery and challenging but not too hard. We biked through what looked like a whole neighborhood of red and white cottages with small, fenced in yards.

Hike to the highest point, Tysta Klint, which has spectacular views over the sea. Watching Joel and Gustav navigate the sea's black surface, I can't help but think of the Little Prince exploring some fantastic planet. See More 7. Review of Stromma Archipelago Excursions.
