Hardin was dismissed before she had a chance to shoot a single scene, having only posed for a picture with Stoltz on the set, which was to be developed into the snapshot Marty carries with. George McFly is holding this book in his hands in the high school scene when he is being made fun of by his class mates.

In contrast, Christopher Lloyd stated that when he occasionally stumbled across Great writing, although in his introduction Cohn says that he could barely open because he couldn't face his blatant factual errors. Nick Cohn with this book by the way for all you new generation homo-sapiens, the title is taken from a crooning containing the same seemingly indecipherable words, courtesy Little Richard.
