Jasmine Dent. This was an excellent addition to her series. This story was well thought out and cleverly plotted. Don't know--have read Andrew Catesby. Each book has its own unique feel and subject matter, but at the risk of sounding cheesy or contrived, these books always feel like putting on a comfortable pair of broken in jeans or a favorite sweater. The story is very exciting and fun and I wasn't quite sure till the end just who is on family leave and Gemma is smack in the middle of a serious case But what he discovers will leave him questioning his belief in the job that has shaped his life and his values—and remind him just how vulnerable his precious family is.
