Then think about the shame of being led to Herod, [31] O most loving Lord, grant me the grace in whatever I am doing to keep in mind all your most bitter suffering. In his soul he felt sadness, emptiness and fear; in his body, the wounds and the cruel lashes of the whip. As we walk in her footsteps we too may be hopeful in receiving these gifts to help us in our quest for holiness:. TheS. Contemplate how he was stripped naked and very cruelly bound tightly with ropes around his neck and had his hands placed behind his. But how few are those who treasure It!
