I see weakness in the Covenant of Works, Covenant of Grace foundation, though I also see some merit in this approach. Created by God, it was a perfect self-contained unity governed by exact laws which could be discovered by careful analysis and classification. God's Underlying Purpose in the World. God did not stutter nor did He speak in ambiguities. Bible Reference. At the Reformation the literal method of interpretation was solidly established and, in spite of the attempts of the church to bring all interpretation into conformity to an adopted creed, literal interpretation continued and became the basis on which all true exegesis rests. GrandRapids: Baker Book House, page One well-known summary of these principles I agree with wholeheartedly. The more time you spend in observation of the Scriptures, the less time you will have to spend on interpretation and the more accurate will be your interpretation.
