Jonah thought that God was limited to the political boundaries of the nation of Israel. Abide in my love and I will abide in you.

The thing is utterly improbable and incredible, that a man swallowed with his belly. Yunus Jonah. Scholars generally identify this mysterious fish-man as an avatar of the Babylonian water-god Ea also known as Enki. Jonah then resurrected. I love the story of Jonah, it's a tiny book located just before the New Testament. When I would hear God say "forgive," I would go in the opposite direction.
